

Education & Training

There are thousands of challenging educational and training opportunities within the highly-skilled world of Education and Training. Learners need a solid background in academic, technical and presentation/facilitation skills. This cluster area prepares learners for careers in planning, managing and providing education and training services, and related learning support services. Millions of learners each year train for careers in education and training in a variety of settings that offer academic instruction, career and technical instruction, and other education and training services.

Pathways include:

- Teaching/Training

A growing emphasis on improving education and making it available to more Americans will increase the overall demand for workers in the Education and Training cluster. This will result in a particularly strong demand for training and development specialists across all industries.

Additional Resources

Education Online Search

A free college and career education portal to help you learn about careers and the schools offering education and degrees for the fields you choose.

<http://www.education-online-search.com/>

Career Overview

Career education and training programs for aspiring professionals.

<http://www.careeroverview.com/education-careers.html>

U. S. Department of Labor

Information on the teaching profession and how to become a teacher.

<http://www.bls.gov/oco/ocos069.htm>

College Grad

Career and occupational information for teachers.

<http://www.collegegrad.com/careers/proft56.shtml>

Future Educators of America

FEA provides high school students with opportunities to explore teaching as a career option. It helps students gain a realistic understanding of the nature of education and the role of a teacher.

www.pagefoundation.org/fea/
www.pdkintl.org/fea/feahome.htm